

The American Liszt Society
Baltimore-Washington Chapter
presents

CELEBRATE
2005-2015 * A decade dedicated to the creative spirit *

2015 Liszt-Garrison Festival & International Piano Competition

Nancy Roldán, Director

MAGYAR

Hungarian folklore inspired much of the music of Franz Liszt and Béla Bartók. In turn, composers around the world were motivated to create works of extraordinary beauty from their own countries' traditions.

hosted by
Music at Notre Dame Concerts
Ernest Ragogini, Director

COMPETITION Judges

Eugene Alcalay, Piano Romania
José Miguel Cueto, Violin USA
Gabriel Dobner, Piano USA
Daniel Glover, Piano USA
Gila Goldstein, Piano Israel
Enrique Graf, Piano Uruguay
Kevin McMillan, Baritone Canada
Luiz de Moura Castro, Piano Brazil
Ksenia Nosikova, Piano Russia
Dmitry Rachmanov, Piano Russia
José Ramos-Santana, Piano USA
Péter Tóth, Piano Hungary

FESTIVAL Guest Artists

Andrew Gerle, Composer USA
Elizabeth Hart, Presenter USA
Andrea Meláth, Mezzo Soprano Hungary
Bobby Mitchell, Piano USA
Tatiana Muzanova, Piano Russia
Liza Stepanova, Piano Belarus
Laura Strickling, Soprano USA

Notre Dame of Maryland University
LeClerc Hall

4701 North Charles Street
Baltimore, Maryland 21210

October 21-25, 2015

General admission $30.00 — Five-day event
General admission $35.00 — Five-day event at the door
One day or single event $15.00 — At the door
Group rates available by mail — Contact the Director

Special price: Two for $50.00 — Five-day event
(Checks only. Order by mail by September 30, 2015)

Mail check payable to ALSBWC
P. O. BOX 1707, Owings Mills, MD 21117

For registration form, festival schedule, and competition details, please visit www.lisztgarrisoncompetition.org

The American Liszt Society, Inc. 501 (c) 3